A floor plan diagram of a bedroom suite. The suite includes a large bedroom at the top, a bathroom in the middle-left, a walk-in closet below the bathroom, and a master bedroom at the bottom. A central hallway provides access to the bathroom, closet, and a laundry area (W/D) on the right. A staircase labeled 'Dn' is also located in the hallway. The plan is enclosed by a thick border representing the exterior walls.

A floor plan diagram of a building. The plan is divided into three main sections. At the top is a rectangular area labeled 'Loft'. Below the 'Loft' is a staircase, represented by a series of horizontal lines, with the label 'Dn' (Down) positioned to its left. To the right of the staircase is a large, open rectangular area labeled 'Open To Below'. The entire plan is enclosed by a thick black border. At the bottom of the plan, there are two small rectangular areas, each containing a double line, possibly representing doors or windows.

A floor plan diagram of a loft. The top half is a rectangular area labeled "Loft". The bottom half is a larger rectangular area labeled "Open To Below". A thick black line separates the two areas. On the right side of the "Open To Below" area, there is a set of stairs labeled "Dn" (down) with ten horizontal lines representing steps. On the left side of the "Open To Below" area, there is a small rectangular structure with a circle inside, possibly a door or window. At the bottom center, there is a doorway with a double-arched top and a small rectangular base. The entire plan is enclosed by a thick black border.
