This is a black and white architectural floor plan of a building. The plan features a large, irregularly shaped room on the left side. To the right of this room is a rectangular area, which is further divided into a larger rectangle and a smaller, narrower rectangle. Above the larger rectangle is a hatched area labeled "Roof Terrace". To the right of the "Roof Terrace" is a small rectangular area labeled "Dn", which likely represents a staircase. The building's footprint is defined by a series of lines, including a curved line on the left and a complex, angular line at the bottom. The "Roof Terrace" is filled with a cross-hatch pattern, and the "Dn" area is filled with a diagonal line pattern.
